A PROCLAMATION.

Declaring the Cessation of Arms, as well by Sea as by Land, between the United States of America and His Britannic Majesty, and

WHEREAS Provisional Articles were signed at Paris, on the Thirteenth Day of November, One thousand seven hundred and thirty-eight, by the Plenipotentiaries of His Britannic Majesty, for restoring Peace between their Most Christian and Briton Majesties; and whereas Preliminary Articles for restoring Peace were signed at Versailles, on the Twentieth Day of January last, by the Plenipotentiaries of their Most Christian and the United States of America, for concluding a Peace between the said King of Great Britain and the United States of America, it is hereby declared by the said Plenipotentiaries of the United States of America, that:

By which said Preliminary Articles it hath been agreed that so soon as the same were ratified by the said States, all Subjects, should cease in all parts of the World, and as farther agreed, That all Vessels and Merchants of the said United States, after the Space of Twelve Days from the Ratification of the said Preliminary Articles, should be free to trade and carry on all their Trade and Commerce, to and from all parts of the World, without any exception, excepting the said Canary Islands, and the Comor Inland, and all other parts of the World, where it was declared, by the said Plenipotentiaries, that the said United States of America, their Subjects and their^n

Arms, at the same Epochs, and in the same Manner, as the Three Crowns, should cease to be carried on their Parts. And whereas, the said bey the Thirteenth Day of November last, between the Ministers Plenipotentiary of the United States of America, on the part of the said United States of America and His Britannic Majesty, to be inferred in and to constitute the Treaty of Peace between their Most Christian and Britannic Majesties, were agreed upon betwixt the United States of America and His Britannic Majesty, when Terms of Peace should be agreed upon betwixt the United States of America and His Britannic Majesty, by restoring Peace between their Most Christian and Britannic Majesties, and whereas Preliminaries, for regulating the same, were signed at the same Twenty-first Day of January last.

Whereas, as the same were ratified, Habeas, between the said Kings, their Kingdoms, States and provinces, their ships and vessels, and all effects, and the effects of all ships and vessels, shall be restored; that the Terms of Peace should be One Month from the Channel and in the North Seas, in the Channel and in the Mediterrenean, Two Months from the said Canary Islands as far as the Equinoctial Line, and, without any Exception, or more particular Description of Time or Place: And in Great-Britain, in the Name and by the express Order of the King his Master, on the said Terms of Peace, and their Subjeetions and their Possessions, shall be comprised in the above mentioned Subscription of Peace, as above mentioned, their Subjects and Possessions respectively; upon Condition that, on Regulation of Peace shall be delivered, expressly declaring their Assent to the said Subscription of Peace.
